COACHING STAFF

Holly Vargo-Brown
Head Coach
3rd Season (27 total)
Alma Mater: Ohio State
Year: 1984

Holly Vargo-Brown was named head coach of the Ohio State synchronized swimming team June 26, 2012, becoming just the third coach in the program's 36-year history.

"I have such great respect for the strong tradition of excellence established within this program by former head coaches Mary Jo Ruggieri and Linda Lichter-Witter," Vargo-Brown said. "I am honored to accept the responsibility of leading the next generation of Buckeye synchronized swimmers and remain incredibly grateful for the opportunity Gene Smith and the Ohio State Athletics Department have provided me."

"As a former student-athlete with 25 years of experience serving as assistant, associate and interim head coach for the Buckeyes throughout that time span, Holly is extremely prepared to take on the leadership role," T.J. Shelton, associate athletics director for sports administration, said. Her passion for the sport of synchronized swimming, dedication to Buckeye Nation and commitment to the overall development of student-athletes make her the perfect choice to lead our program."

In her first season as the head coach of the Ohio State synchronized swimming team, Holly Vargo-Brown guided the Buckeyes to six first-place finishes, including their 23rd-consecutive North Regional Championship, as well as a second-place finish at the U.S. Collegiate Championships in Palo Alto, Calif. Behind three silver medals, the Scarlet and Gray claimed fourth place at the U.S. Senior National Championships in Greensboro, N.C.

Under Vargo-Brown's guidance, Buckeye Paige Ramsey was tabbed the U.S. Collegiate Athlete of the Year, and six swimmers - Chelsea Aton, Lauren Nicholson, Yuliya Maryanko, Paige Ramsey, Katie Spada and Khadija Zantotto - earned U.S. Collegiate All-America laurels. Heidi Liou and Aton collected U.S. Collegiate Academic Team honors and were recognized as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. Additionally, 11 Buckeyes were named Ohio State Scholar-Athletes, while Julia Gaylard, Samantha Golomb, Tori Hawes, Kristine Irwin, Paige Wells, Maryanko, Nicholson, Spada, Liou, Aton and Zantotto were Academic All-Big Ten selections.

Her second season was just as good as the first. The Buckeyes won the U.S. Senior National Championship in addition to finishing second at the U.S. Collegiate National Championships. Vargo Brown was named the U.S. Synchro Coach of the Year and six Buckeyes earned U.S. Collegiate All-American honors.

Vargo-Brown began her coaching career at Ohio State as an assistant coach in 1986 and after a brief hiatus following the 1990 season, she returned as assistant coach in 1993. During her tenure with the Buckeyes, Vargo-Brown has helped coach 19 U.S. Collegiate National championship teams as well as two U.S. Senior National championship squads. Vargo-Brown also has been instrumental in leading various members of the program to a total of 41 U.S. titles (nine solo, 14 duet and 18 trio titles.)

In 2004, Vargo-Brown served as the Ohio State interim head coach while then-head coach Linda Lichter-Witter was assisting the U.S. Olympic Team in Athens, Greece. During that campaign, Vargo-Brown led the Scarlet and Gray to their fifth-consecutive U.S. Collegiate national title, coached three All-Americans and was later named United States Synchronized Swimming Coach of the Year. Vargo-Brown also led Ohio State in 2005 when Lichter-Witter was on medical leave. Vargo-Brown coached the Buckeyes to a runner-up finish at nationals, while mentoring five All-Americans at the conclusion of the season.

The 2012 U.S. Synchronized Swimming Collegiate Contributor of the Year, Vargo-Brown has played a pivotal role in the growth of the sport collegiately, nationally and internationally. As a swimmer, she earned a spot on the 1985 U.S. National Team II squad. Vargo-Brown's coaching stints include leading U.S. Olympic Festival Teams in 1987 and 1988. She also was the assistant coach to the Venezuelan National Team at the 1987 Pan-American Games.

A Buckeye letterwinner from 1981-84, Vargo-Brown was an All-American in 1984 and member of the 1982 and 1983 U.S. Collegiate championship teams. A four-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete, she was the recipient of the Melvin and Irving Schottenstein Post-Graduate Award, which was first designed specifically to recognize and promote women's achievements in intercollegiate athletics at The Ohio State University. Vargo-Brown graduated from Ohio State in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

A Toledo, Ohio, native, Vargo-Brown attended Morrison R. Waite High School. She was inducted into the Morrison R. Waite High School Athletics Hall of Fame in February of 2009 for her athletic and coaching successes. While attending Morrison R. Waite, Vargo-Brown was the 1978 Ohio junior champion, 1980 Ohio Region 6 champion and 1979 and 1980 Northwest Ohio AAU Athlete of the Year. In 1979, Vargo-Brown went on to finish 11th at the Junior National Championships. Additionally, she was a two-time member of the varsity cheerleading squad.

Vargo-Brown and her husband Breck have three daughters, Taylor, Jordan and Grayson and a son, Chase Adam.

Suzanna Fernandez
Assistant Coach
3rd Season
Alma Mater: Ohio State
Year: 2003

Suzanna Fernandez is in her third season as an assistant coach with the Ohio State synchronized swimming program in 2014-15. The former Suzanna Hyatt, Fernandez lettered for the Scarlet and Gray from 2000-03.

"Suzanna was an exceptional student-athlete during her career at Ohio State," said head coach Holly Vargo-Brown. "She fully understands the commitment necessary to continue our tradition of excellence and will bring an energizing and fresh perspective to our program. I am beyond excited to welcome her back to the family."

In her first two seasons, Fernandez has helped lead the Buckeyes to back-to-back U.S. Collegiate runner-up finishes and a U.S. Senior National Championship in 2014. She was named to the U.S. Synchro Contributor of the Year in 2014 for her efforts.

Fernandez, a native of Indianapolis, Ind., had a stellar career with the Buckeyes, capping her four-year stretch with 2003 U.S. Synchronized Swimming Collegiate Athlete of the Year honors and three All-America laurels. Additionally, Fernandez, along with teammate Chelsea Luker, was crowned the 2003 U.S. Collegiate Duet champions. Having the distinction of being part of four U.S. Collegiate championship teams, Fernandez arrived to campus as a freshman in 2000 and was a member of the Ohio State B team, which would later be renamed the Gray Squad. A year later, Fernandez earned a place on the A team (now known as the Scarlet Squad) and promptly helped continue the winning Buckeye tradition as Ohio State captured its second-consecutive U.S. Collegiate championship title. The following two seasons mimicked much of 2001 as Fernandez and the other members of the A team won their second and third-consecutive U.S. Collegiate team titles. Fernandez and the A squad also dominated the North Regional Championships during that stretch, winning titles from 2001-03.

While competing for the Buckeyes, Fernandez had the honor of being named to the U.S. National Team II squad in 2001 and was a member through 2003.

Fernandez also excelled in the classroom. A three-time member of the U.S. Collegiate Academic Team, Fernandez was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and four-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete. A 2003 Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor Finalist, Fernandez was among a group of student-athletes who were recognized for proficiency in both academics and athletics. During the 2003 season, Fernandez was presented with the Leann Grimes-Davidge Award. Awarded annually, the Leann Grimes-Davidge Award is given to a female athlete who reflects Grimes-Davidge's outstanding qualities of athletic performance, scholarship, character, campus or community involvement and leadership.

After earning her bachelor's degree in Spanish in 2003, Fernandez served as the U.S. National Team's Trials Routine Choreographer and Demonstrator in 2004. That same year, Fernandez began duties at Wynn Las Vegas, serving several capacities, including show performer and synchronized swimmer for Le Reve.

Prior to returning to campus, Fernandez was the national team coach for Preselección de Panama Nado Sincronizado, the inaugural national team of Panama.
